

THE WEST COAST TAP DANCE COLLECTIVE

presents

workshops with

HEATHER CORNELL

Classes held at

Vancouver Tap Dance Society

2775 East Hastings Street • Vancouver • British Columbia

January 27, 28, 29 & February 3, 4, 5 2006

HEATHER CORNELL, FOUNDER AND DIRECTOR OF MANHATTAN TAP, is the choreographer of the Tony-nominated British comedy The Play What I Wrote, which ran at Broadway's Lyceum Theatre from March through June of 2003 in New York. She is one of the leading tap teachers on the scene today. She apprenticed with six of the original tap masters and had the rare honour of having then shared the stage with them. She has been featured in shows with Cookie Cook, Buster Brown, Chuck Green, Steve Condos, Eddie Brown, Honi Coles, Jimmy Slyde, The Nicholas Brothers, Gregory Hines, and Savion Glover. She established the Manhattan Tap Apprentice Program that is responsible for training today's generation of tap artists including Max Pollak, Michael Minery, Roxanne "Butterfly", Bob Carrol and Jeannie Hill, as well as cast members of Manhattan Tap, Stomp, Bring In da Noise, Bring In da Funk, Tap Dogs, Cool Heat Urban Beat, and Riverdance. She travels extensively teaching Master Classes and Residencies throughout the world. The West Coast Tap Dance Collective is thrilled to have Heather back for a second visit.

ADVANCED BEGINNER & INTERMEDIATE & ADVANCED

Heather Cornell was a protege to Charles "Cookie" Cook, Eddie Brown & Harriet Brown. She studied extensively with and performed often with Chuck Green, Steve Condos & Buster Brown. She brings all this experience to her classes.

IMPROVISATION CLASS

Improvisation cannot be taught but the compulsion to do it can be nurtured. This class focuses on improvisational exercises and games in music and dance that will get the student moving in the direction of self-discovery.
