

THE WEST COAST TAP DANCE COLLECTIVE

hosts classes with guest instructor

LISA La TOUCHE

LISA LA TOUCHE

Originating from Calgary, Lisa La Touche is founder and Artistic Director of M.A.D.D. Rhythms Canada. Her pursuits evolved from her studies across Canada and in Chicago, and New York City with influences derived from support and lessons of world renowned teachers. Her performance credits include a solo debut in Chicago in "M.A.D.D. Rhythms: Unplugged", guest artist in Dance Chicago's "Valentines Dances", Vancouver International Tap Festival's "Expressions of Rhythm" the St. Louis Tap Festival's "All that tap XIII", and the West Coast Tap Dance Collective in "The Spirit of Tap". As a teacher, choreographer and adjudicator, Lisa has worked for countless dance schools, workshops/conventions and festivals across the North America. She teaches for the renowned Jazz company Decidedly Jazz Danceworks, and has been a featured choreographer in Dancers Studio West's "Alberta Dance Explosions" 2004 and 2005, guest choreographer with Vancouver's Urban Tap Squad, and Calgary's Encorps Dance Collective. She has even worked at the international level guest teaching for "New York City Dance School", and "Gluckerschule" both located in Stuttgart, Germany. Lisa's recent collaboration with Bril Barrett developing the Calgary based "M.A.D.D Rhythms Canada" has lead her to great new heights in her tap dance endeavors. She has successfully produced both "Release Yourself", and "Freedom of Speech" in Calgary, and works with many talented Canadian tap dancers working to achieve the goal of promoting and preserving the art of tap dance and bringing it to the next level.
